

ARE YOU FROM A BLACK AND MINORITY ETHNIC COMMUNITY AND SEEKING A CAREER IN SOCIAL HOUSING? WHY NOT TURN TO PATH (SCOTLAND)?

A Housing Traineeship is available with Clydebank Housing Association, 77-83 Kilbowie Rd, Clydebank G81 1BL

Traineeship Reference: 2020/05

Traineeship Name: Housing Trainee – Clydebank Housing Association

PATH (Scotland) is offering a thirty six month Positive Action Training Scheme, which has been specifically designed to redress the under-representation of black and minority ethnic communities in employment in Scottish Housing. PATH works in collaboration with Local Authority Housing Departments and Registered Social Landlords across Scotland to provide our housing training opportunities. This traineeship is in partnership with Clydebank Housing Association.

The training involves:

- thirty six months' work experience
- specialist qualifications and professional membership
- training allowance of £13,540.80 per year is tied to the Scottish Living Wage (£9.30/hr) and is exempt from tax and national insurance.

At the end of the programme, trainees can compete for jobs in the Scottish Housing sector.

Applicants should be:

- from Black and Minority Ethnic Communities and committed to a housing career
- willing to undertake a demanding training and study programme over thirty six months - 4 days' work experience (between Monday and Friday) inclusive of 1 day's attendance at college or university during the academic year.

Applicants should have:

- awareness of social housing issues and the duties of a registered social landlord
- good working knowledge of Microsoft Office tools
- confident communication skills, both written and verbal

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS: Wednesday 21st October at 12.30pm

Interviews will be held on Thursday 29th October at Clydebank Housing Association's office in Clydebank.
