As can be seen, two requests were received during the quarter. Although we did not hold all of the information requested, we provided the relevant information we did hold within our target timescales. The information we did not hold was not legislative, nor are there any requirements for us to record, reference or report it anywhere. We have no obligation to provide or set up systems to account for information we do not currently hold. The information we did send was posted on our website for future reference.

The information on the next page confirms our submissions to the ICO:
